LOCKTON AFFINITY Home Care

4 insurance benefits home care businesses need

Lockton Affinity has more than 20 years' experience working in the home care insurance industry and offers coverage for many of the top national companion care businesses.

Along with our vast experience, we're Beazley's preferred agent in the home care space, which means companion care businesses have access to competitive insurance solutions and a quick and easy application process.

Lockton Affinity protects companion care businesses in four unique ways:

1. Solutions specifically for companion care businesses
   Protect your business's professional reputation, property, financial security and more with our customizable insurance package.

2. Singular coverage options
   Get Workers' Compensation on a mono-line basis, without buying an entire package.

3. Flexible payment methods
   Improve your cash flow by utilizing our premium installments and our pay-as-you-go option for Workers' Compensation coverage.

4. Knowledgeable service representatives
   Receive guidance and support from our dedicated account managers who understand the risks and challenges companion care companies face.
